11 days | 10 nights | 9 stages from 66 to 122 km | Total 882 km
Rest day on Chumphon Beach.

Our exotic bike journey takes us along the Gulf of Thailand and the Andaman Sea to Phuket on perfect, smooth roads. Discover Thailand's natural beauty as we coast along through tropical forests and jungle-covered karst peaks, past beautiful ornate temple complexes and traditional villages. For the most part, we ride on almost traffic-free roads along the ocean. An unparalleled road bike experience for enthusiastic cyclists of all ages! We spend the night in selected, quality hotels with a pool, most of them located directly on sandy beaches.

Bangkok – The City of Angels

Bangkok, Thailand's vibrant metropolis, offers a multitude of possibilities for day trips. Visit the Royal Palace. Marvel at countless, ornate temple complexes or discover historic Bangkok on a river cruise. Enjoy the many culinary delights and limitless shopping at unbelievably low prices. The huge Chatuchak Weekend Market on Saturday before the start of our tour offers an excellent opportunity for a visit. We highly recommend spending a few days before the beginning of the tour in this fascinating, exotic city. Additional nights can be booked through us.

Day 1

Arrival in Bangkok

Upon arriving at the JW Marriott Hotel, centrally located in the heart of Bangkok, you will enjoy all of the amenities of this noble 5-star hotel. In the evening we will greet and welcome you in the meeting room of the hotel. Here we will inform you about the tour and provide a bit of interesting information about our host country. Every participant will receive a high-quality team jersey.

Day 2: Warm-Up Stage

1st stage: Phetchaburi – Hua Hin = 66 km, flat

In our comfortable van, we depart Bangkok toward Phetchaburi. The drive to our starting location will take 2 hours. After lunch at a seaside resort Cha-Am, we will ride through a palm-fringed agricultural landscape. Hua Hin, the oldest seaside resort in Thailand, welcomes us with many good restaurants, shops and a 5 km long, white sand beach. In the afternoon, we will move into our accommodations at the 5-star Hilton Hua Hin Hotel and refresh ourselves afterwards in the large pool. B | L incl.

Day 3

2nd stage: Hua Hin – Kui Buri Beach = 78 km, flat

We will cycle the first 14 km on a bike path and then along beautiful, varied coastal roads with an ocean view. Numerous pineapple plantations and shrimp farms dot the landscape. We pass through Khao Sam Roi Yot National Park and ride further to Kui Buri Beach. Our hotel lies directly on the seaside. B | L incl.

Day 4

3rd stage, Kui Buri Beach — Baan Krut Beach = 105 km, slightly undulating

Through a scenic landscape characterized by coconut palms, we ride to the beach of Baan Krut. This tiny, sleepy village is a true insider tip. At the end of the picturesque beach there is a castle-like temple complex. From there we enjoy a breathtaking view of the bay and the palm forests in the distance. Our resort is only a stone's throw from Baan Krut's beautiful, enticing sand beach—perfect for relaxing and daydreaming. B | L incl.

Day 5: Royal Coast Road – the dream road for cyclists

4th stage: Baan Krut Beach — Chumphon Beach = 122 km, slightly undulating

On this stage we will ride along the Royal Coast Road. This stretch was built extra for cycle touring. Virtually traffic-free, we pedal through rubber trees and palm forests. From the Keo Prasert Temple we enjoy a breathtaking view of the karst peaks of the Thung Maha Bay. The snow-white sand beach of Ao Thung Wua Laen, today's destination, is located 15 km outside of Chumphon City. B | L incl.

Day 6: Chumphon – Gateway to Southern Thailand

Rest day on the beach in Chumphon

Today's rest day offers you the opportunity to sleep in, relax and swim in the hotel's pool. Nature lovers may prefer the white sand beach and treating themselves to a massage afterward? The beautiful coastal road entices cyclists to go out for another voluntary ride on the bike. B incl.

Day 7

5th stage: Chumphon Beach – Arunothai Beach = 95 km, flat to slightly undulating

The nearby ocean is our constant companion. Our eyes can't get enough of the tropical, green vegetation. We bypass the city of Chumphon toward the south and return to the coast. Here we have the road almost to ourselves. Arunothai Beach is still located within the province of Chumphon.

B | L incl.

Day 8

6th stage: Arunothai Beach — Laemsai Beach = 103 km, flat

The flat coastal road leads us through a scenic landscape of small villages. Jungle-covered limestone peaks reach toward the sky as we enjoy the practically traffic-free road. Once again, our hotel truly lives up to its title as a “beach resort.” We will enjoy a pleasant evening on the quiet beach. B | L incl.

Day 9: Optional afternoon boat excursion on Chiew Larn Lake

7th stage: Laemsai Beach — Takun = 95 km, mainly flat

Shortly before Suratthani, we turn off toward Khao Sok National Park. Rubber trees and oil palm forests are characteristic for this fertile area. Through construction of the Ratchaprapha Dam in 1987, a unique, gigantic lake was created. After a refreshing swim in the hotel pool, you could admire the unique limestone peaks of the Khao Sok National Park surrounding the lake and enjoy an evening drink at a floating restaurant. B | L incl.

Day 10: Swimming in the Indian Ocean

8th stage: Takun – Khao Lak Beach = 119 km, undulating at first then flat

We ride through Khao Sok National Park and are enchanted once again by the magical mountain scenery. A short climb (5% gradient), which of course can also be done in our van, leads to a pristine scenic outlook. In Khao Lak, the coast of the Indian Ocean awaits us, our resort lies directly on the Nangthong Beach. B | L incl.

Day 11: Epilogue

9th stage: Khao Lak – Bangtao Beach Phuket = 98 km, mainly flat

We follow the main road and after 33 km we turn onto an idyllic side road. We treat ourselves to our coffee break in Thai Muang. Then all senses are rewarded again with a view of a picture book landscape. After crossing the Sarasin Bridge, we reach the Thailand’s largest island – Phuket – and finish with an easy spin to the Siam Bike Tours Shop. There we enjoy lunch together and toast our eventful tour. B | L incl.
